

News Will Print 'Song of Siberia,' Militant Serial, Aimed at Communism—and Moguls in Hollywood

By Den Murray

Please note in the last issue of the SIERRA MADRE NEWS glowing sparks from the fire and brimstone blast leveled at you by our local mountain Isaiah known as "The Hermit of Sierra Madre." The old man really rose up in his patriotic wrath and thundered at you from the crags.

Some of it we felt you had coming. But not all. We know, for instance, that the entertainment business has been blessed by many, many dedicated, patriotic Americans. To mention a few: In radio there was Fletcher Wiley. In radio and TV there are still Art Linkletter and Arthur Godfrey.

In films, Jack Warner, Eddie Cantor, John

Wayne, the late Ward Bond, Adolph Menjou, writers Ryskind and Frank Gruber.

And, of course, movie columnists like Louella Parsons and Hedda Hopper.

General interest columnists like Vince Flaherty, Fulton Lewis Jr., and William Randolph Hearst Jr., himself.

But leave us face it: you in Hollywood have failed—for some strange reason—to unleash the full force of your great voice, talents and cameras on Russian Communism. Don't you think it's about time you did?

WE DO. And because we do, we've bought ourselves a story. It's a story that was offered to a representative few of you and rejected as

"controversial"—"provocative"—"an insult to Khrushchev."

Well, for heaven's sake! Since when haven't the greatest stories in this world been "controversial" and "provocative"—or what do you call the Bible?

And since Nikita Khrushchev abused and insulted our President—what real American quails at telling the "Butcher of the Ukraine" just what he is!

AND SO we've bought "Song of Siberia." And we're going to serialize it in this newspaper, starting in next week's edition.

We think you'll see in "Song of Siberia" one of the finest film stories of all time. Certainly, if made into a picture and shown to the peoples of the remaining free world it can bring the corrupting, enslaving spread of Communism to a screeching stop.

It can, like the "Marseillaise" in France, overrun the barricades and sing tyranny into its grave.

It can, like the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," lift the flagging tread of Father Abraham's beaten, discouraged Union armies and lead them on to victory and freeing of the slaves.

BELIEVE US! "Song of Siberia" can become the funeral dirge of the horrible Red Menace that stalks this earth!

Watch for it—listen for it—in next week's issue of the SIERRA MADRE NEWS.

Around the Square

By Tommy-Ann Miller

Regarding the proposed citywide blanket of street lights: It isn't a lunatic fringe which opposes the glaring globes every 200 feet, but a generous slice of thoughtful, city-loving Sierra Madreans, people who prefer to see the stars and walk in the dappled dark, rather than be illuminated into a migraine.

(Most of the protesting residents signing petitions agree there are certain dark spots which do need lighting.)

IF YOU FIND the door to Jo Whalen's Relic Shop closed—it's because Jo has temporarily joined the list of sufferers bugged by the flu.

FROM FAR-FLUNG Sierra Madreans: Former Canyon resident, Bill Addison, just won the Palo Alto Open Chess Tournament and is now classed third in the state.

Another ex-Woodland Dr. dweller, Randi Rae and son, Joel (now three years old), are living at Avalon—where Randi keeps on with his painting.

"Fisherman at Balboa," an oil by Eric Hahn (who recently moved to New Jersey), was awarded the "most popular painting" prize in a show there.

GRANTED the days have been extraordinarily beautiful—clear, colorful, calm—BUT we do need rain, rain, rain to dampen the air and stop all this SHOCKING shocking dust (especially from car door handles).

MR. AND MRS. JAMES GIFFEN of Toronto have been here since the holidays, enjoying the valley view from the Sierra Meadows home of their son-in-law and daughter, Roy and Joan Lindberg. The Giffens will probably return this week to their own view of Lake Ontario from the family home at Port Hope.

FASHION'S SPRING FORECAST—Straight from the couture's cauldron: "Lithe slenderness, waisted lines down, skirts up, bare throat, bare arms (via one-shouldered clothes), a casual slouch effect achieved by a new back-slanting posture, and forward-moving hats on a small but decorative head."

Hmmm, should be a field day for head-shrinkers and chiropractors.

DESPAIRING REPORT from a new teacher—after his first semester of teaching a senior high class (12th grade): On a final spelling test, the potential graduates were given 50 words from a ninth (yes, ninth) grade textbook. Two weeks before the final test, the class was given the list to study, and they were also given a pre-test. Result: In a class of 32 students there were 27 failures.

The teacher asks: "How would you feel if you were a teacher faced with 85 per cent of a high school graduating class which reads badly, cannot spell on a ninth grade level, and cannot punctuate on a sixth grade level?"

THE UNREPRESSSED hostility of a 6-year-old as expressed in her own spelling style: "Mothr is dum. Mothr is not nis. Mothr is a bly. Shy peks on letl keds."

Fine New School Cardinal Dedicates Alverno

With His Eminence, James Francis, Cardinal McIntyre, D.D., archbishop of Los Angeles, sparking the event with pomp, ceremony and an all-engrossing talk, hundreds of persons Sunday afternoon took part in and witnessed the formal dedication of the new Alverno Heights Academy, thus helping to bring into actuality another extensive educational institution to the Sierra Madre and Hastings Ranch area.

The cardinalate ceremony of the solemn blessing and dedication, colorful in itself, was staged against the equally colorful and broad backdrop of the Sierra Madre, omnipresent from the school's locale and amid the lush greenery of the historical old Barlow estate on which the new institution is located.

Cardinal McIntyre, and the principal speaker, Rev. Joseph P. Sharpe, superintendent of high schools and colleges in the Los Angeles archdiocese, and Mayor W. Webster Vannier of Sierra Madre, stressed the importance of education, particularly in these trying days when Communism seeks to upset and oust the Christian religion, replacing it with a godless atheism.

THE PROCESSION, comprising the cardinalate entourage, Cardinal McIntyre, the Home Guard of the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus; the flag raising led by Louis M. Van Iersel, holder of the rare Congressional Medal of Honor which he wore for the ceremony, and including a delegation from the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Harry L. Embree Post, Sierra Madre; the solemn blessing and dedication of the school, singing of the National Anthem, the more than 100 girls of the school's first freshman class; the address of appreciation by the class president, Miss Mary Drabinski; the girls all garbed in similar picturesque costume; and the various sisterhoods, including the Sisters of St. Francis of Penance and Christian Charity under whose auspices the school is operated, with Sister M. Benigna its principal, was carried out without a hitch and formulated a picture not easily forgotten.

Much credit should be given to William D. Maloney of Sierra Madre, president of

$1,500 Theft Is Reported

Daylight thieves continue to operate in Sierra Madre. Following three such robberies the week previous in which the loot totaled more than $600, burglars the latter part of last week obtained valuable worth more than $1,500 at the L. E. Blakeman home, 144 Vista Circle.

Mrs. Blakeman, leaving the door unlocked, was absent from the home on Monday. She had left her one and one-half carat engagement ring, wedding band ring and watch on top of a dining room bureau. Friday when she looked for them, all three articles were gone. Ring was valued at $1,300; band ring at $160 and watch $125.

75 FIREMEN BATTLE ACRE BRUSH FIRE IN HASTINGS RANCH AREA

AS HIS EMINENCE, James Francis, Cardinal McIntyre, presided at the solemn blessing and dedication of Mt. Alverno Academy Sunday, Cardinal McIntyre, clad in his brilliant cardinalate vestments, is shown reading at the altar. At left, rear, also reading, is Father Thomas O'Malley of St. Rita's Church, Sierra Madre.

Sierra Madre Blvd.

Board members to be installed are alphabetically: Frank Dolph, Joseph Delgatto, Robert H. Green, Glenn Gullett, Ralph Hurwit, James B. Hall, Ed-E. Herwig, John C. McKibben, Miss Nina Neale, Mrs. Leila M. Roberts, Stirling Ripple and Manuel de la Torre.

At Inaugural Parade . . . Van Iersel Will Sit In Presidential Stand

Jet flying to Washington, D.C., Louis M. Van Iersel, 134 E. Montecito, holder of the rare Congressional Medal of Honor for heroic deeds in World Wars I and II, will sit in the Presidential stand in front of the White House during the inaugural parade.

Van Iersel, member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Harry L. Embree Post of Sierra Madre, is one of the 315 Medal of Honor winners invited to attend the inaugural parade of President John F. Kennedy.

The Sierra Madre veteran received a personal invitation from Waldron E. Leonard, chairman of the Inaugural Committee, which he and Mrs. Van Iersel promptly accepted.

They will spend four days in the national capital, much of it sightseeing, as this is Mrs. Van Iersel's first trip to Washington.

J. S. Fergus Dies Quickly T. H. Lathe Passes Away

Death in a San Clemente hospital came last Friday to John S. Fergus, resident of Sierra Madre for 24 years before removing to San Clemente a few months ago. Mr. Fergus, a carpenter, was a native of Australia, was 74 years old.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mary Fergus; Mrs. Joyce Ann Artz, Pomona; Neil E. Fergus, Sierra Madre and a Pasadena policeman; John Edward Fergus, captain in the Air Force assigned to a Texas field; Mrs. Barbara Benscoter, wife of Patrolman David Benscoter of Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Mary Norris, also of Sierra Madre. The family home here was at 165 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Mr. Fergus first worked in New York City and San Francisco before coming to Sierra Madre where he was accounted an expert craftsman in carpentry and cabinet making. Taken to the Aftermath of a stroke suffered during the Christmas holidays, Thomas H. Lathe, 67, active in the Sierra Madre Democratic Club, passed away Tuesday at Sawtelle Hospital.

Mr. Lathe had lived in Sierra Madre since 1945. Until he retired last January, he was in the sales office of the Wilson & George Meyers Co.

Surviving are his wife, Margaret; a sister, Mrs. Ella Zukas, and three brothers, Warren, Albert and Nathan, and his stather, Thomas B. Lathe, all of Baltimore, Md.

A memorial service will be held in the Sierra Madre Congregational Church today (Thursday) at 11 a.m., conducted by the Rev. George W. Lindsay. Interment will be in Oakland, Calif., Friday.

Jim Parsons Honored by Rescue Team

By Bill Wark

James Edward Parsons, of 244 E. Highland, Sierra Madre, was presented an Outstanding Service Award by the members of the Search and Rescue Team during a farewell party held in his honor Saturday night.

Parsons, shift superintendent at the Lever Brothers Los Angeles plant, has been promoted to production coordinator of all the Lever plants and will assume his new duties in their New York headquarters on Monday, Jan. 23.

As a member of the Search and Rescue Team, Jim Parsons has participated in 90 per cent of the rescues and was brush-up instructor in first aid. In presenting the award, Fred La Lone expressed the wish of the entire team for his continued success, adding that "but your leaving our team creates a loss that will be hard to replace."

JIM PARSONS' sincerity and understanding heart has won him many lasting friends, not only in Sierra Madre but also among those with whom he has worked.

Attending the party held at the Ray Lorenzini home, 173 San Gabriel Ct., were Mr. and Mrs. Fred La Lone, Mr. and Mrs. Edward La Lone, Mr. and Mrs. Jon Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wolfson, Mr. and Mrs. Miner Harkness, Mr. and Mrs. Larry C. Lomax, Mr. and Mrs. Earl La Lone, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Colbert, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lorenzini, Ranger Ralph Shangraw, Lester Anthony, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parsons.

'Space Kids' Blast Off With Home-made Rocket

Sierra Madre police went up against a new one on Friday, Jan. 13th.

It was the hand-made rocket, evidently the work of "space kids," but potentially dangerous.

Powder is poured into a small, round receptacle, a fuse attached to the bottom and the "bomb" mounted on a stick.

Just like a Fourth of July skyrocket it is stuck in the ground at a slant, the fuse lighted and—boom!—away she soars, accompanied by a loud noise which, of course, delights the youngsters.

Explosions of such rockets were reported on E. Grand View and N. Baldwin.

Repertoire Theater Set For New Play

Finishing touches are being put on "You Can't Take It With You," a comedy by Kaufman and Hart in three acts, to be presented Jan. 27 and 28 in the Sierra Madre School Auditorium by the Sierra Madre Repertoire Theater. The play is being directed by John Spanos, assisted by Gail Clement.

An admirable job is being done by James Wilson, producer. He was treasurer and ticket manager for the Sierra Madre Theater's first production, and the group is again leaning heavily on him. The Pasadena School System uses his talents daily in a teaching capacity, and amateur theater takes up his spare time.

He first became interested in an opera company in New Jersey as early as 1946. He also has worked in musical comedy both acting and producing.

On his staff for this production are Stan Coutant, lighting; Sally Boyce, portrait painting; Linda Herold, prompting; Alice Herold, printing; Michael Catford, sound; Barbara Tuttle and others; tickets; Sally Boyce and Vera Spanos, publicity.

THE CAST boasts considerable talent, several having studied professionally. One is Rex G. Martin, who hails from the Province of Ontario. He came to California in 1959 and has studied at the Pasadena Playhouse. Currently he is studying singing and voice under Charles Hedley.

Section captains for the annual Mothers' March Jan. 31 have been assigned by Mrs. Robert C. Poolman, chairman, for all but two Sierra Madre areas.

VOLUNTEERS wishing to help out on the Mothers' March either as section captains or as marchers are requested to call Mrs. Poolman at ELgin 5-8902.

The Mothers' March of the March of Dimes Campaign is traditionally conducted by the Sierra Madre Civic Club as their major community service fund-raising project of each club year.

fourth mile east of Michillinda and Valleylight Dr., Hastings Ranch.

More than 75 firemen and Forestry and county workers fought the flames, visible from Downtown Sierra Madre, for 90 minutes before the fire was extinguished.

Early detection and speedy arrival of the two Sierra Madre trucks prevented what could have been a disaster so near a densely populated area. The Passionist Fathers Monastery and Retreat House and the Upper Hastings Shopping Center are not far distant.

CAUSE of the fire which is undetermined is believed to have stemmed from some young boys who had been playing in the sector, late yesterday. A match thrown into the brush could have ignited the latter, smoldering all night before it burst actively into flame.

Children's Home Society To Have Charity Day Feb. 3 At Santa Anita Race Track

The Santa Anita Auxiliary of the Children's Home Society will have a "Charity Day at Santa Anita Race Track" on Friday, Feb. 3. Members are working hard on the sale of 500 tickets and are planning for a fun and successful benefit event.

Funds raised by the auxiliary will all go to continue the worthwhile work of California's largest adoption agency, Children's Home Society, 311 W. Adams, Los Angeles.

The society helps natural parents seeking assistance in planning for their child; serves children in need of adoption, and aids couples who want to complete their families through adoption.

IN THE first six months of 1960, 465 children were placed in adoptive homes.

The auxiliary has reserved the Terrace Room for the afternoon and by selecting a Friday many husbands are to be included. Tables will seat four to six persons and tickets are $5 each. Please call Mrs. Kennedy Galpin, ELgin 5-2549, or Mrs. Desmond B. Strangman, ELgin 5-8930, for tickets.

One of the day's races will be named in honor of the auxiliary.

STORKLAND

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. A. Peterson became the proud grandparents of a girl born to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Mowery of Loma Linda, on Jan. 10. The baby, Lisa Ann, weighed 6 pounds, 12 ounces. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mowery of Tappanish, Wash. The great-grandmother, Mrs. Hilda Peterson of 68 Victoria Lane, Sierra Madre, celebrated her 87th birthday anniversary last June 16.

Youth Group Aids Pupils In Morocco

Pencils, crayons and pen-sharpeners have been purchased by the Youth Coordinating Council to be added to the supplies from other Youth Councils in this area to be sent to school children in Morocco.

These purchases were made from the proceeds from the Christmas Dance, "Wonderland by Night," sponsored by the Youth Council.

A special committee was appointed at the Youth Council's January meeting by Steve Luder, president, to work with Thomas Butch, assistant city administrator and newly-appointed recreation director, in formulating plans for a teenage recreation program.

Appointed to the committee were Larry Morse and Bud Nations, co-chairmen; Bruce Rowe, Candy Chambers, Kay McIsaac and Michele Tweedle.

Preliminary planning also was begun for another teen dance to be sponsored by the Youth Council some time in February.

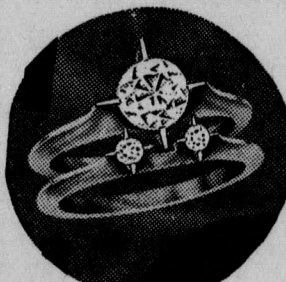

Chief Gordon MacMillan of the Sierra Madre Police Department will be guest speaker at the next Youth Council meeting Wednesday, Feb. 1.

Any and all Sierra Madre teenagers are always welcome to attend Youth Council meetings. Only membership requirements are Sierra Madre residence and an interest in Youth Council activities.

They went to the home of Jimmy Considine, a 3rd grade classmate who had been ill for several months, and sang for him. After caroling for the sisters at the convent they had a Christmas party at the home of Barbara Robertson. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson were excellent hosts and gave the girls a grand time.

The girls were glad that they had sung for Jimmy as he passed away five days later. The entire troop attended the rosary funeral service.

At Christmas they decorated cookie cans and made cookies to fill them and presented 20 of them to the British Home. When they presented them they sang Christmas carols to the people at the home.

The girls are now working on the requirements for second class rank. They are planning dramatizations and outings for the near future. They are working on the agriculture badge by planting bulbs this spring.

Famed Pianist Browning Will Play at Monrovia

Foothill concertgoers will hear the internationally famous pianist, John Browning, this Saturday evening, when he is presented in a return concert at Monrovia High School Auditorium under auspices of the Foothill Community Concert Association. It will be the third concert on the 1960-61 concert series.

Playing here earlier in his career, Browning brought forth acclaim and praise from all those attending and it is expected that his return concert in the Foothill communities will draw a capacity crowd. Curtain is at 8:15 p.m.

Denver-born, John Browning made his orchestral debut at the age of ten in a Mozart concerto. Moving to Los Angeles, he continued his piano training privately, and his academic studies in public schools and at Occidental College. Later, in New York, he attended the Juilliard School of Music on scholarship and studied with Madame Rosina Lhevinne.

IN 1955 he won the coveted Edgar M. Levenritt Award which enabled him to make his brilliant appearance with the New York Philharmonic in February, 1956. Queen Elizabeth also presented him with a Gold Medal Award on the Concours Internationale Musical in 1956.

In February, 1957, he gave six sold-out performances with the Los Angeles Philharmonic receiving a resolution from the City Council commending him "for his outstanding ability and accomplishments."

The artist gave an electrifying New York recital on Nov. 5, 1958, which proved to be a major musical event of the season. He has since toured extensively in Europe, the Near East, Mexico and the United States.

FOR HIS Foothill program on Saturday, Browning will play "Concerto in Italian Style," by Bach; "Sonata in D Minor, Op. 31, No. 2," by Beethoven; "Sonata, Opus 26," by Samuel Barber, "Evocation" and "El Puerto," by Albeniz; and four works of Chopin, including two "Mazurkas," the "Nocturne in D Flat Major" and "Grand Polonaise in A Flat Major."

Hastings Hill

By Joyce Wenger
SY. 8-4777

"Fools rush in where angels fear to tread!" Taking over an established column from Lucie and Marge, two gals known and loved on the hill, is a rather fearsome challenge, indeed!

Although this may be Inaugural Week for Mr. John Fitzgerald Kennedy—and me, the designers have not come forth with any inaugural gown so I will celebrate the event with inauguration of a new typewriter ribbon!

Now I shall not promise a "New Frontier," but I will sincerely try to report the news of Hastings Hill to the best of my ability. May I add that readers who telephone their news to me will have my undying gratitude.

MEMBERS OF Mapha Club, meeting at the home of Mrs. James Speers on Hastings Ranch Dr., had a wonderful time last Monday evening. Highlight was the club's annual silent auction of white elephant items. Excitement grew to fever pitch with the raising of each bid.

To top it all, the refreshment prepared by the co-hostess, Mrs. Patrick Fagen, was a heavenly concoction so beautifully assembled it seemed a crime to eat it. Consisting of a large round of bread topped with rings of cream cheese, red salmon and anchovy paste, all artistically applied with a pastry grow up in Sierra Madre 25

Long and four daughters were neighbors of ours some years ago in Altadena. They now have eight children from three months to ten years, two boys and six girls. Small wonder they seem to be outgrowing this home too!

TENNIS, ANYONE? I met some friendly Hastings Hill mothers at the Hamilton Park tennis club conducted by Coach Paul Waterhouse each Friday morning. There's still room for a few more eager beginners; if interested call SY 3-9177. Playing (?) last week were Marguerite Miller, Darlene Coon, Priscilla O'Grady, Margaret Tusler and Marian Hammond.

THE JOHN LONGSDON family of Medford Rd. have been down and out with the mumps, including Mother! January may be the beginning of a new year but we can always depend on arrival of the Christmas bills and left over germs.

WE HAVE SOME tremendously interesting people, hobbies, homes and gardens up on Hastings Hill. So from time to time I would like to feature them in this column.

This week I want to talk about Mrs. Ronald S. Edwards, of 1215 Valley View, one of the most attractive accomplished and vital personalities on our hill. For

EDITOR'S NOTE — With this issue, Marge Thomas and Lucie Lubisch retire from the NEWS. Their retirement is for family reasons, both believing the time has come when they must give more time to their homes. Marge has been writing for the NEWS for nearly ten years and Lucie for seven. Naturally, the management of this paper and their constituents will miss their lively chatter. Toni Maurin will continue to write Villa Views and Joyce Wenger of 1694 Sierra Madre Blvd. will assume the duties heretofore handled by Marge and Lucie. Announcement to this effect will be found in another part of this page.

LATIN AMERICAN color and gaiety keynoted the monthly dance of the Hastings Ranch Dance club Saturday night at the VFW hall. Host couples for the party were Bud and Jane Howell, Bob and Ann Talmo and Tom and Marge Bickler.

BUD HOWELL had a busy week. He also was chairman of the father-son program at Wilson Junior High, presenting Les Richter and an outstanding Olympics movie. Jane did a real job, too, lining up door prizes.

DELTA ZETAS say tickets are still available for their Flame Fantasy benefit luncheon Feb. 4 at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. Mrs. Leon McCall president of the Pasadena Foothill alumnae chapter may be contacted for tickets at EL 5-1778. In addition to making plans for the luncheon, at their monthly meeting Thursday night, alumnae viewed a remarkable display of linens from all over the world, the property of Delta Zeta member Mrs. Nadine Robinson.

DOOD AND JACK BAK who leased their Landfair Rd., home and went to Mexico for a five-year stint report after several months there that they are having an interesting experience. With both Dood and Johnny and their two boys, Johnny and David, picking up Spanish at a good pace. They have done some sightseeing, and Jack is busy with the new plant his company is building. Write them at Monte Altus 425, W. 7; Mexico 10 D.F.

HASTINGS RANCH Democratic Club will hold its own inaugural dinner beginning at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow night at the Foothill Ethical Society, 293 N. Euclid. Isabel Goldsmith is chairman. You may call her at ELgin 5-8560 for reservations.

LAS JARDINERAS members will receive a review lesson in rose culture and pruning at their January meeting at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Ann Talmo, 3535 Shadow Grove. Their speaker, John H. Van Barneveld, has sent word to the lady gardeners to hold up their rose pruning until after his talk so they'll be sure to do their pruning in the right places. Co-hostesses will be Jane Howell and Linnea Karelius.

LAS COMPANERAS will have their annual "day at the races" Feb. 1 All the members and their friends are looking forward to the fun of luncheon and then watching the horses run. Of course, a head for mathematics is a help on these occasions since the gals split bets and if their horse is a winner THEN the winnings have to be divided—this isn't too easy sometimes.

There will be a Las Companeras race and Shirley Anderson, and Cretona Wenger, vice president and the one who arranged the affair, will be at the winner's circle to congratulate both the jockey and horse that comes in first.

Among those expected to be cheering for their four-legged choices are Robbie Pruitt, Hazel Gittinger, Ethel Asher, Dorothy Schluter, Pat Giangregorio, Fran Wright, Muriel Eley, Jeanne Paxson, Phyl Hardison, Edna Meason, Marie Walsh, Irene Delahouke, Barbara Clark, Eileen Fakas, Betty Barr, Peg Christianson, Carol Benedict, Gerry Dunn, Carmen Farmer, Ethel Hays, Betty Jean Knudson, Jeanne Langstaff, June Ziegler, Phyl Wentz, Bonnie Murphy, Pearl Judd, Marge Rowley, Jo Wells, Emily Morzov, Joyce Zuck, Jeanne Slavin, Nancy Rode, Betty Harris, Kay Wisner, Pat Olson, Nancy Lenny, Elaine McClean, Ann McKnight, Pat Dixon, Rosalind Pryor, Elaine Driemeyer, Doreen Horn, Mary Lou Lieber, Connie Messinger, Ann Stanaway, Gen Kelley, Gwen Shiner and Carmella Halstead.

JAN AND GENE Fruhling and daughters, Penna, Lynn and Erika, had a wonderful two-week visit with her sister and brother-in-law, the Gordon Joneses, and their children, Lanah, Lee and John, in their Dallas, Tex., home.

CRETORA AND ERNIE Wenberg selected the North Shore Beach and Yacht Club at Salton Sea to celebrate their twentieth wedding anniversary. Both of them are great water skiing enthusiasts and when they leave the Ranch with their boat and dog, Jody, they are ready to have a fun time.

ROBBIE PRUITT, director of Hastings Section, Needlework Guild of America, and her two assistants, Margaret Davis and Hazel Mitchell, are gathering up materials for next year's work. A "cutting party" is planned in the near future to get the garments ready for distribution at the group's first meeting of the year Feb. 23 at Pat Goudge's house.

It's to be a potluck luncheon and co-hostesses will be LaRetta Adams, Dorothy Castor and Rachel Cline.

Those girls making up the cutting committee are Maggie Tompkins, Ethel Asher, Rachel Cline, Pat Goudge, Dorothy Castor, Jo Caffee, Marge White, Ethey Mayhew, Marie Walsh, Gerry Newhouse, Jane Burt and Priscilla Anderson.

THE STEWART McILVEN family will be moving to Denver, Colo., the first of the month. Robbie Pruitt, Jan Cowen and Beverly Sien are co-hosting a farewell luncheon for Margie at the Pruitt home. Those invited to the affair are Margaret Davis, Marjorie King, Alice McCall, Gloria Graham, Sharon Brown, Mary Ruth Clutterbuck, Jeanne Garr, Marge Roos, Louise Coleman and Glenda Fullmer.

THE HILLTOPPERS, couples' social group in the Ranch, had another fun evening. The theme of last Saturday night's soiree was "Dizzyland" and was held at the Warren Millard home. Lottie and Bud Marrs were co-hosts. Gay booths with balloon sellers, popcorn man and other concessionaires gave the affair a true carnival atmosphere. Each guest received a printed ticket book on arrival and had his choice of different events and food... most popular booth of the evening was the huge "prize booth" where winning tickets could be traded in for wonderful prizes.

Trying their luck at "Madam Betty's Wheel of Fortune" or using their skill at "Bud's Shooting Gallery" were the Frank Nelsons, Howard Moons, Cardey Denises, Bill Lindens, Jack Conleys, Randolph Wilburs, James Sullivans and Ralph Johnsons.

Lucie and Marge.

Future Needs Are Discussed

"What's Ahead for Hastings Ranch in 1961" was the topic for an interesting discussion held last night at the Eugene Field PTA meeting in the school cafeteria.

Participating on the panel were residents of the Field school area and included the Messrs. John S. Davidson, Citizens Urban Renewal Advisory Committee member; Wayne Hough, Redevelopment Agency member; Clarence Oakley, city director, and James N. Stivers Jr., Board of Education member. The program was arranged by Mrs. Skipper Rostker, program chairman.

J. B. Jouvenat Passes Away

VILLA VIEWS

By Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

We stand on the threshold of another reign of political dominance. To believe that the new President will do everything right would be sheer stupidity, just as it would be to say that Mr. Eisenhower made no mistakes. The mere fact that he underestimated the volatile Mr. Khrushchev alone will probably be a thorn in his side for the rest of his days.

To presume that Mr. Kennedy can quickly change and remedy that situation overnight would be foolhardy. Mr. Khrushchev is no fool and he has already succeeded in downgrading Mr. Eisenhower with school-boy tactics that are too appalling to even be believable.

To think he will have any more loyalty or respect for Mr. Kennedy if the latter chooses to cross him is wishful thinking.

The one thing we must assume, as we did with Mr. Eisenhower, is that Mr. Kennedy's first interest will be for the welfare of his country and ALL the people, both young and old.

With that goal in mind he will do the best that he can, and the least we can as a country is support him to the best of our ability.

Mrs. Hedrick said that "I guess you are going to have to say that we are athletically inclined."

They have put in a swimming pool and a tennis court which promises to make their home the youth center of the street. One thing nice, she says, they have little yard to maintain. The court also doubles for all sorts of other ball games. Family-wise they enjoy skiing, although they have had little time of late to enjoy this hobby.

Mr. Hedrick is the president of the J. H. Hedrick Company, which is a building contracting company for commercial buildings and apartments in San Gabriel. He is also a member of the Young Presidents Organization.

Both families were former Hastings Ranchites.

MRS. ELDON OSBURN of Edge Cliff Lane entertained her bridge club last week.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN D. GRIFFITH of Mesa Rd. had a dinner and bridge party last Friday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Burton Dake, who have just recently moved away from our immediate area, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Siebert and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wiegell.

VILLA MESA has two new families on the street. Mr. and Mrs. John Nouskajian are well settled into their home at 3377 Villa Mesa. They moved in around September with their three children.

Their eldest daughter is Sharon, working at the present and going to night school. Gary is 17 and attending PHS, and Johnny, 11, is at Eugene Field.

Both boys enjoy golfing with their father and are looking forward to the opening of the new course. Mr. Nouskajian is the owner of "Johnny's Auto Parts Shop" on Washington in Pasadena.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HEDRICK are at 3345 Villa Mesa. They moved in just two days before Christmas with their children, Judy, their eldest, is in the 9th grade at Wilson; Janet is at Marshall, and their 11-year-old son, Mike, is at Eugene Field.

Introducing Mrs. Wenger, New Ranch Correspondent

With this issue, Mrs. George Wenger of 1694 Sierra Madre Villa assumes charge of our Upper and Lower Hastings Ranch news. Mrs. Wenger, who has been a Hastings Ranch resident for some time, is a former Associated Press Bureau worker in Chicago and has served in the editorial rooms of several Midwestern newspapers, both as a writer and editor. Mrs. Wenger's phone number is SYcamore 8-4777.

At the same time, Mrs. Toni Maurin will continue to furnish her highly interesting, well-written and entertaining Villa Views column, and Miss Martha Sharp will turn out her recently-originated column about people and events in the Oaks, Highlands and Rosemead-Foothill area.

We bespeak every possible support and cooperation from our thousands of readers in these areas for these three fine and capable newspaperwomen, and at the same time wish to express our appreciation for the loyal support which the NEWS has received from our readers in these fast-growing sections.

This is another move designed to strengthen the news coverage which the NEWS affords its many patrons.

tube. Mrs. Fagen then added a ring of whole shrimp and in the center caviar.

If that's a sample of a typical Mapha Club meeting, then I would certainly enjoy being a member except that I lack one essential requirement—I didn't years ago.

It seems that a group of little girls started the club way back then and as the girls and their friendships grew, so did the club.

NOW HERE is a real change of pace. Members of Boy Scout Troop 383 spent the weekend camping at Borrego State Park. Saturday's activities included an eight-mile hike through an unusually picturesque canyon and in the evening a program conducted by the State Park Ranger and on Sunday the boys practiced gun safety and marksmanship.

Boys making the trip were: David Birkhahan, David Harris, John Heller, Eric Joyce, John Loomis, Steve Maloney, Dennis Roswell, Bob Senour, Gene Vance, Randy, Ricky and Ron Schnieder. They were accompanied by Scoutmaster Ed Parks and his assistant, Bill Heller.

THE ROY D. MILLERS of Valley View were surprised on New Year's Eve by visitors from Washington who presented Mr. Miller with a coveted ticket to the Rose Bowl game.

ENJOYED CHATTING with Mrs. William Long of Shadow Grove Rd. Dr. and Mrs.

the last ten years, while raising her family of three children, she has been director of Youth Chorus at Westminster Presbyterian Church.

During that time the choirs have grown from 30 children to 260, and from one choir to five choirs, ranging from first grade through college. Mrs. Edwards is also on the staff of the Pacific Palisades Music Camp each summer.

She is pleased that most of her students continue with choir year after year and that largely as a direct result of this choir training some of her choir members have gone into music training in college.

ANN MILLER EDWARDS was well trained for this work. She earned her B.A. degree at San Jose State College and an M.A. in music education from Stanford University. Then 15 years of additional musical study in San Francisco and some concert work in that area.

She taught music on both junior high and high school levels in Northern California. She is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, National Honorary Music Sorority.

This article highlighting Mrs. Edwards would not be complete without mentioning Ronald S. Edwards, who is vice president, in charge of organization and control with the Title Insurance Company. Mrs. Edwards is quick to point out that her double life would not be possible without his patience and understanding.

May we walk in Thy sight and Thy light, O Father, for the benefit of Thy spirituality, Thy cause and our humanity.

'Apostles of Quaintness'

Sierra Madre is growing and will continue to grow. All the drawing back by the "Status-queers," and all their desire to revert to the "Good Old Yesterdays" may slacken it now and then but it won't stop this city's progress.

Conditions change as years pass and any community which clings to the status-quo will of a certainty begin to regress.

Our children grow up, gain ideas of progress, and unless the community in which they live lends impetus to that desire for betterment these youngsters will move to other cities where progress is unimpeded and where they are encouraged to accomplishment—not merely standing still.

A DEPLORABLE example of selfish retrogression was evident in the desire of seven or eight Sierra Madre areas, people from which who fought the new street lighting system and because of their wishes were exempted from this long-needed improvement.

These backward-minded property owners wanted darkened streets and this they will have until some startling crime in their neighborhoods shakes their complacency and stuns them into modern living and respect for the rights of their fellow-townsmen, the majority of whom were for the new lighting.

DO THESE "Apostles of Quaintness" realize that darkness is a cradle of crime in any community and that their neighborhoods are no exception to this?

Do they know that Sierra Madre police almost every night are called on to warn pervers, some of dangerous homicidal tendencies, who strive to make our hillside districts the rendezvous for their activities, and that many of these sexual irresponsibles can and would commit reprehensible crimes against young folk?

What would they think if some especially dark night one of their young sons or daughters were murdered in the darkened areas of their homes and found dead with a dozen vicious knife wounds in his or her young body?

Would they then continue to favor insufficient lighting for their parts of this city?

Or would they raise the hue and cry of insufficient policing—police who are crippled grievously in their work by insufficient street lighting?

WE REPEAT, a city either progresses or retrogresses—it cannot stand still. But some of the "Status-queers" and "Apostles of Quaintness" sometimes do make progressively-minded citizens scratch their heads, and wonder just what is the selfish virus that makes them tick.

City Council is to be commended for going ahead with the new lighting system, even though it had to exclude a few districts of the "Apostles of Darkness."

The Committee Problem

A young person just out of college, or about to graduate, could do worse these days than plan to go into the committee business. It's been a booming business, with no signs of slackening off.

There is scarcely a problem in California that, at one time or another, doesn't have a committee studying it. And many committees go on and on with the studies.

If the charge that we now are engaged in government by committee seems preposterous, consider the recently delivered legislative message of Governor Edmund G. Brown.

In the speech, Brown asked for a White House Conference on Narcotics, a joint legislative-executive commission on social welfare, a "blue ribbon" commission to study reappointment of the state Senate, an advisory committee to explore means of speeding the reporting of election returns, a "balanced fact-finding committee" to study problems of farm labor-management relations, and reactivation of a state housing commission to study housing problems.

CONSIDER FURTHER Brown's legislative program and the fact that his plans for education came largely from the Citizens Advisory Commission on the Public Schools, his narcotics program from a commission on narcotics, his administration of justice plans from a special study commission on juvenile justice, public health plans from a committee on medical aid and health, public health for migrant farm workers from a "task force" on problems of migrant farm workers, his reorganization of government outline from a commission which studied reorganization, plus recommendations stemming from a public outdoor recreation committee and a commission on metropolitan area problems.

Aside from his legislative program, Brown has appointed such study groups as a special committee on public policy regarding agricultural chemicals, an advisory committee on children and youth, an advisory committee on the ageing, a commission on peace officer standards and training, a capitol building and planning commission, a Governor's advisory commission on educational television, a Golden Gate authority commission and an advisory council to the Golden Gate Authority Commission, a state cancer advisory council, and a technical advisory committee to the economic development agency.

THE GOVERNOR, of course, is not the only one in the committee business. With the convening of the new session of the Legislature, reports already have been received from some 30 committees and subcommittees of the Assembly, at a cost of nearly $1 million. Reports from 13 Senate fact-finding committees still are to come.

Such other major study groups as the citizens advisory committee on big game will be reporting later.

No matter what the name or subject, most study committees or commissions have a few things in common. They usually hire staffs; they usually print reports; they usually recommend further study on the subject.

The aforementioned are the relatively inexpensive

Lee Shippey Says . . .

What Do You Think?

How time changes! Fifty years ago I was in a group of young persons including a pretty girl who called attention to her pretty hair by shaking it and saying, "Please excuse my hair. I just washed it and can't do a thing with it."

A moment later her escort, who had heard that remark more than once, accidentally trod on her toes and exclaimed: "Please excuse my feet. I just washed them and can't do a thing with them."

No one laughed. Instead there was almost a gasp of shock at such impropriety. Anything as personal as the washing of feet was hardly mentionable unless it was necessary.

Today we are free from such inhibitions. Radio and television bring comments on most intimate matters into the living room of even the most refined, and at cocktail parties some stories of pretty high voltage bring only bursts of laughter rather than shock. "Louder and funnier" is the continual cry, through usually the response is merely louder, rarely funnier.

MAYBE the prissy proprieties of 50 years ago were as ridiculous and impractical as were the bathing suits of that period. Maybe some of the old-fashioned courtesies and inhibitions were, as Oscar Wilde might have put it, "too utterly too-too." But there isn't any "maybe" about the lengths to which some of our present-day freedoms permit us to go, and it is distressing to hear a teenage girl laugh at something she shouldn't laugh at, just because she feels she must appear sophisticated. The simple fact is that lack of sophistication is one of the most charming of attributes, and one should have only enough sophistication for self-protection.

I still remember the girl who, 50 years ago, called attention to her pretty hair by apologizing for it, even though I knew the apology was inspired by forgivable vanity, for both she and the vanity were natural and unsophisticated.

On the other hand, I can't recall ever having been pleasantly impressed by any girl or woman because of her sophistication.

A LOT of us who worry about or harshly criticize the rising generation rarely go so far as to set a good example. If we really wish it to be a decided improvement on our generation we might start by weeding the vulgar and the risqué out of our own conversation and behavior when youth is listening, for youth is quick to notice what we laugh off as the accepted thing.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The showing of the film, "Operation Abolition," by the Kiwanis Club, showing the meeting of the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities in San Francisco, included me in the audience.

This committee, by the way, was nonpartisan including two members of each party with a Democrat as chairman.

My basic training as a West Point cadet included all that is implied by that institution's motto, "Duty, Honor, Country," so to me the main criterion in judging the actions or decisions of any individual or group in this country is, "is it for the good of our country and does it uphold the provisions of its Constitution?"

In reviewing the above film, I was not so concerned with the actions of the students as I was in learning that the Communists in this country are able so strongly to resist due processes of law and to do it so openly.

study groups. Members usually are paid travel expenses or per diems, sometimes nothing.

THE EXPENSIVE studies are those carried on by consulting firms, with costs of these running into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. There have been cases when so many studies have been made on subjects that expensive studies have to be made of the studies themselves.

Changes in the law or the problems involved as a result of all these studies have been something less than sensational. Perhaps there should be a study commission to study these study commissions.

'Mail Box Thievery'

There has been considerable "mail box thievery" going on in Sierra Madre. By "mail box thievery" we mean youngsters tampering with mail left in mail boxes of residents on his route by the mailman.

This was particularly true during the recent holidays when numerous instances were reported of youngsters taking letters and packages from the mail boxes, tearing them open, sometimes tearing them up when the contents were disappointing, and scattering them about the neighborhood.

It would be well for such youngsters to remember that tampering with the mail is a Federal offense carrying with it severe punishment.

When one of the leaders being investigated by the committee refused three times to give his name and when the leaders led chanting which prevented questions and answers being heard for 15 minutes, I believe that it is about time drastic measures be taken to prevent recurrences of similar situations.

I strongly hope that everyone, regardless of his present feelings in the matter, see this film at his first opportunity. To repeat a previous notice, it will be shown on the night of Jan. 23 at the Huntington School in San Marino at Huntington Dr. and Virginia Rd.

—Colonel C. E. Morrison, U.S. Army, Retired.

Dear Editor:

We on N. Auburn Ave. have had to contend with our street being used as a "raceway" for a long, long time. When we have complained to police, the reaction is one of indifference most of the time.

SUNDAY evening, Jan. 8, a young couple came down Auburn in a pickup truck at such a rate of speed that the driver lost control of the car when he came to the intersection of Mira Monte and Auburn Ave.

He zig-zagged about one-half a block before turning over. We all are amazed and thankful neither of them was killed or injured seriously, and that the little boy crossing the street seconds earlier was spared; also that someone wasn't coming up the hill at the time.

We were appalled at the attitude and negligence of the officers who "investigated" the accident.

One of the officers was heard to sneer "experts" when he heard us discussing the fact that the boy was going way too fast.

One of the spectators is an expert in the field of investigating, being formerly an insurance investigator. His opinion was that the officers were obviously in error to have estimated the speed at 25 miles an hour, as one of them did. How anyone could roll a car over at that speed is a mystery to us.

WE HAD all seen or heard the extreme rate of speed at which the vehicle was traveling. At no time did the officers ask if anyone had witnessed the accident. When information was volunteered, there was no response except that one of the officers said, "Oh, come on now," when a witness estimated the speed at 50 miles an hour.

When told that skid marks were made 200-300 feet back, the officers did not even walk up the street to see. They just didn't seem to want to know the facts.

The boy knew he was exceeding 25 miles an hour, and all the witnesses knew, only the officers chose to believe differently.

Our police force is undoubtedly vigilant in other ways, but why so lax in this matter of life and death? Will some one have to be killed before anything is done about this problem? This is not the first time there have been accidents or near accidents on this street in the past year. Have the police forgotten that there is a grade school on Auburn, requiring many children to walk up and down it?

It's difficult to teach young people respect for the law, when they see that the law is complacent about breaking of the law.

WE ARE NOT a bunch of "cranks." We are just conscientious law-abiding citizens of Sierra Madre who would like a chance to raise our children in safety.

We are indeed not experts in this problem. We merely would like to feel that the police were the experts, and were attempting to solve this with us. They can count on our utmost cooperation if they will only listen to us and our viewpoint, we know something can be done.

We feel strongly that something must be done about this very serious problem before someone's life is lost—not after it's too late. —Jack Sheppard, Lois Sheppard, Burton N. Cousins, Ruth M. Cousins, Robert E. Houser, Joanne E. Houser, Geraldine L. Anderson.

Dear Editor:

I imagine that many fellow Sierra Madreans share views expressed in George Forster's letter of Feb. 12. However, as a member of "the minority" protesting certain aspects of the recently proposed street lighting program, and as an Edgeview property owner, may I respectfully offer:

1—When "minorities," groups or individuals (Communists excepted) cannot be heard and accommodated in our society, their aims being reasonable and legal, then democracy ceases to exist in fact.

2—These "minorities" are, in fact, the majority of total representation in the areas petitioning to retain the status quo.

3—These same "minorities," with an eye to retaining the natural beauty and charm of their respective neighborhoods, are not blind to some of the more serious and pressing demands on

Writer Sees Giant Strides Being Taken

By Robert G. Spivack
WASHINGTON

THE REBIRTH OF A NATION—Whatever other characteristics I may have, certainly those who know me agree that I am a hard man to convince. Perhaps the explanation is that nearly half of my 45 years have been spent covering or writing about politics, from the precinct to the national level.

Tammany Hall, Ohio politicians, the New Deal, the backrooms in Albany—all these have been on my beat. Also international affairs; the Hitler Nazis; the anti-Nazi movement, the Popular Front, the Communists, domestic and foreign, development, creation of the State of Israel and attempts to bring democracy to Italy.

So, as lawyers say, "Let us stipulate" that I have seen many things, even if I have not always understood them.

I MENTION all this as a prelude to what I want to say on the eve of the inaugural of John F. Kennedy as President of the United States:

Through a long career in and around the area of public affairs I have never seen a national administration take office with men of as high caliber as those named by Mr. Kennedy to fill out the key positions in the Federal Government. Of the dozens of appointments that have already been made, I can only think of two about which I have serious reservations. That gives Kennedy a batting average of something around .900—or an "A plus."

Several things stand out about the Kennedy appointments:

First, this young President is completely unworried about naming some of the brainiest men in the nation to work with him. Whereas someone else might be inclined to surround himself with "yes men," Kennedy has chosen men with minds of their own. There are those who think this is dangerous in politics; I regard it as a hopeful sign for the future.

Second, Kennedy has not only named first-rate men for most of the cabinet jobs—he has continued to name the best men available for the working and planning levels of government.

THE MEN of distinction—In a previous column I commented on some of the high quality early appointments. Now let me continue to list the other distinguished men Kennedy is bringing into government:

GEORGE BALL as under-secretary of state for economic affairs. Ball is not only an international lawyer of eminence, it is no secret that he worked and hoped that Adlai Stevenson would one day become President. This made no difference; Kennedy chose Ball on the basis of his qualifications, not his political preferences.

WILLARD WIRTZ as No. 2 man in the Department of Labor and NEWTON MINOW as head of the Federal Communications Commission: Not only are they Stevenson's law partners, these men also are experts in their own right. With Minow in the FCC it is safe to assume that the days when television channels are awarded on the basis of "connections" forward.

with political fixers are over.

THE NAMING of Arthur Goldberg as secretary of Labor is a sign that Kennedy wants a well-balanced man to handle labor-management affairs; but also one who knows the men who live by the sweat of their brows are not peons.

Selection of Arthur Sylvester of The Newark News as the Defense Department's public affairs chief means Pentagon bureaucrats will no longer be able to conceal their blunders with a "top secret" stamp. Sylvester is an outstanding newspaperman.

But, perhaps the bravest appointment of all was the selection of ROBERT C. WEAVER as chief of the Housing and Home Finance Agency. It's not only that he is a Negro, although Harvard-bred, it's not even that he has been head of the NAACP that makes the choice significant.

The designation of Weaver is deliberate notice to the Southern extremists that Kennedy is ready to take them on if they persist in their resistance to the elevation of Negroes to the status of first-class citizens.

KENNEDY recently told a newspaper columnist that he is well aware he may be only a one-term President. But any man who has so aroused the expectations of the nation need not worry about public rejection.

When this nation's mood is optimistic it moves ahead. The atmosphere here is now electric with optimism. I am fully convinced that under John F. Kennedy we are about to take giant strides forward.

'Fancy Dan' Adult Education Classes Hit

By Henry C. MacArthur
(Capitol News Service—Special to the Sierra Madre News)

SACRAMENTO—Extensive criticism of the adult education program as advocated by school districts in this state was contained in an interim committee report by the Assembly committee on education.

A sub-committee, looking into the program, has severe doubts and reservations about some areas of adult education programs "which are best described as avocational."

Classes in the following subjects are being offered throughout the state, the report says, at local and state taxpayers' expense:

their shrinking tax dollars; for example: a living wage to members of our police force and an adequate sewerage system before typhoid compels remedial action—minorities or no.

4—While an attack by a dog is never a pleasant experience, I doubt that you will find incidences of this nature, nor crimes of violence among humans, more frequent in the dark of night than in broad daylight.

5—Electricity is one of man's greatest blessings. But, for heaven's sake, let's not tangle up in wood and wire, one of the few remaining beauty spots in America that some 8,000 of us delight to call "home." If we don't like bright lights, we can avoid 'em, neighborhood. You have the same choice; no offense intended. Now, about policemen's pay and adequate sewerage.

—William E. Hayes.

Dear Editor:

Upon the campus of Pasadena High School a war soon will be waged. We have what we consider a very worthy cause. Our question has been asked repeatedly, hashed out in many meetings. But we believe "no" to be an insufficient answer.

Why may not the students of Pasadena High School wear Bermuda shorts on campus? We do not propose ragged cut up shorts, but knee length pants with hems on the bottoms and high socks if necessary.

We hope our battle will end with a constructive settlement, not like many past battles others have waged. We will end our battle only when we are 100 per cent victorious.

We have started circulating a petition for our cause. Anyone wishing to aid us call Eric Van De Verg, EL 5-9862.

Architectural Firm for New Church Plant Designated By Shepherd of the Hills

By unanimous vote, the congregation of Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran church decided Sunday to engage the firm of Earl G. Brooks, Encino, Calif., to design the master plan for development of church buildings on the site on the northwest intersection of Foothill Blvd. and Santa Anita Avenue in Arcadia.

Brooks, who is nationally recognized as a church architect, plans to proceed at once with designing the plans for ultimate development of the site.

Once plans are approved and bids taken, construction will begin on the first building, probably a chapel and Sunday school. These buildings will be permanent and part of the eventual total development, including paved parking and landscaping.

THE CONGREGATION was organized in 1958 in the Sierra Madre Woman's Clubhouse. The church now meets in the Sierra Madre Masonic Temple. Formed with a charter membership of 140, the congregation now numbers more than 200 baptized members.

Hesse to Aid Office Bldg. Dedicatory

A new office building, erected for the Southern California District of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, will be dedicated next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in appropriate and colorful ceremony. The president of the district body, Rev. L. Behnken of Laguna Beach, assisted by Pastoral Vice Presidents William Graumann of Riverside, Gustave Schramm of Alhambra, Armin Hesse of Pasadena, and Edward Schroeder of Long Beach, will perform the dedicatory rites.

Rev. Hesse of Hastings Ranch will give the brief dedicatory address.

REV. G. H. SMUKAL of Los Angeles, first president and oldest clergy member of the district, will cut the ribbon. Boy Scouts from neighboring congregations will form the color guard. The El Rancho Circuit of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League will provide the refreshments.

The new structure, located at 5400 East Pomon a Blvd. in East Los Angeles, contains 6,500 square feet and includes executive offices, committee rooms and assembly hall. The church office was formerly located at 5146 East Olympic Blvd.

The growth of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod in Southern California to a membership of 80,000, has necessitated this provision of larger office facilities.

Dr. Barnhart Theme Again Mind Science

"How To Use The Science of Mind" is the sermon topic of Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister of the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 225 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock worship service. Child care is provided.

Every man is constantly being either part of his problem or part of its solution. Through application of the principles taught in religious science the individual learns how to consciously become part of the solution to his problem.

Dr. Barnhart will also discuss how it is possible for man to live in such harmony with the universe that he will experience more and more freedom from the things that rob man of the joy of living.

JUNIOR CHURCH from pre-school through Junior High School, under the direction of Lee and Evelyn Kingsbury, meets also at 11 a.m., and the youth from high school through first year of college, at 7:30 p.m., with Suzanne Huntzinger leader.

Every Wednesday morning 10:30 o'clock a healing meeting is conducted by Rev. Rosalie Fowler. A time of prayer is set aside for special requests. The public is welcome to attend.

Join with hundreds by dawning for prayer. Call HI 7-6162, day or night. These prayers are also available at the church in booklet form. For further information call HI 6-8206.

The Church of the Ascension will have as special preacher at the 10 a.m. Mass this Sunday, the Rev. Father A. L. Pederson, of the Society of St. John the Evangelist.

Father Pederson has recently been elected Chaplain Provincial of the Western Province of the Community of the Sisters of St. Mary and is making his annual visitation to the Convent from Jan. 18 to 22.

Theological Education Sunday also falls on Jan. 22. The day is set aside specially to remind the laity of the seminaries where young men are training for the ministry. Envelopes will be provided in the church for this special offering.

Zurn; treasurers, Rebecca Rence; publicity commissioner, Anne Felton. The E. Y.C. meets every Sunday night at 7:30 p.m. in Parish House. All high school students (grades 9-12) are welcome.

THE ANNUAL diocesan business meeting, which all Episcopal Churchwomen are urged to attend, will be held Monday, Jan. 30, beginning with Holy Communion at 10 a.m. at St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles.

Speaker for the afternoon program following at 12:30 p.m. luncheon at the Hotel Statler-Hilton will be the Right Rev. William Fisher Lewis, bishop of Olympia, whose subject is "Wanted: Salvation Packed for Shipment."

Will Appear At Nazarene

"T. Texas Tyler, known as 'The Man With a Million Friends,'" and one of the foremost country and western artists for many years, will feature a service in the Sierra Madre Church of the Nazarene on Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m., according to the pastor, Rev. Orian G. Burlison.

It will mark one of the first appearances in this area of T. Texas Tyler who until recently spent his time touring throughout the United States and Canada headlining "Grand Ole Opry" TV and radio shows. He will tell of how he decided to quit this life to become a Gospel preacher. He also will play his guitar and sing Gospel songs.

A capacity crowd is in prospect and Pastor Burlison suggests early attendance. Admission is free.

'Covenant Idea' Is Rabbi's Topic

At the Foothill Jewish Community Center Temple Beth Israel, 212 N. Lima St., Sierra Madre, Rabbi Charles W. Steckel will conduct services on Friday at 8:30 p.m. He will be assisted by Cantor Solomon Edelman, and Miss Jeri Schuck, organist. Topic of the rabbi's sermon: "The Covenant Idea."

Hosts for the social hour immediately following the services are Mr. and Mrs. Art Cohen, honoring their son's "Bar Mitzvah."

Schwartz Back

Thomas E. Schwartz has resumed his duties as president of Sierra Madre Hardware following an operation at St. Luke and recuperation at his home, 287 E. Montecito, for a period covering eight weeks.

'Huckleberry' Tells All About Kite Flying

The expression "Go fly a kite" isn't an insult this time of the year—it's an invitation to a lot of fun. But, like any other outdoor sport, it can best be enjoyed when played according to the rules, and TV star "Huckleberry Hound" tells about it to children in a free booklet which Southern California Edison makes available to youngsters in Sierra Madre Elementary Schools and St. Rita's School.

According to Paul J. Langley, Edison's district manager, and Robert Green, its Sierra Madre representative, the company is distributing nearly half a million copies of this comic instruction book to youngsters in Southern and Central California.

"In our large home, we have use for many electrical appliances and are adding more all the time. But because we had ample Housepower in the first place, wiring is never a problem.

"For my money, a home should be built to Medallion requirements. And I believe most home buyers today would like to move up to Medallion standards of living. That's why my new Sol Vista, Luxury Series, Homes in Westminster will bear the Medallion Award."

Only one new home in five qualifies for the Medallion—an award which assures you:

1. All-electric kitchen, equipped with major electric appliances, including flameless range and oven.
 2. Housepower wiring for modern electric living.
 3. Light for Living—abundant light designed for comfort, safety and beauty.
- The Gold Medallion Award includes all these Medallion features and more. For total electric living, the Gold Medallion adds:
4. Flameless electric space and water heating.

Parents Night Scheduled By Little League

Little League Baseball setup, Art G. Albertson, president, will stage Parents Night at Youth Hut, Sierra Vista Park, at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Following a half-hour business session, the rest of the evening will be devoted to parents. The objectives and program for the coming spring, summer and fall will be outlined. In order to assure a good turnout each team manager personally invited the parents of each boy on his team.

Gene Bell and Bud Hartman are working on the practice and game schedules for the coming season, both minor and major leagues. Bert Menne is busy planning the tryouts.

Visitors From Unionville, Mo.

Repertoire Theater

THE ROMANTIC lead is being played by David Leamon, also a Sierra Madre resident, although he was born and raised in Los Angeles. He attended San Bernardino Valley College and now works as a salesman for the Acacia Mutual Life Insurance Company.

He has appeared with the South Pasadena Little Theater in Bret Hart's "M'Liss," and with the Altadena group in "The Reluctant Debutante." He resides with his wife, Jo, and a young son, Michael.

Playing the romantic lead opposite David Leamon will be Nancy Muelleavy in the role of Alice Sycamore. She is of that rare breed, a third generation Californian, her grandparents being the Rev. and Mrs. William Carson Shaw.

She has always loved amateur theater and was a thespian at St. Helen's Hall, Portland, Ore. Nancy has lived in Sierra Madre all her life except for the few years spent as an Army wife. Her personal hobbies are singing, tennis and poker. The whole family enjoys baseball and all but "mother" play the organ. This is her second appearance with the Sierra Madre Repertoire Theater.

MARILYN NARCOWICH is playing Essie, and opposite her is another Sierra Madrean, J. Carter of Sturdevant Dr. Mr. Carter came from Pennsylvania several years ago where he was active with the Harrisburg Community Theater. He operates his beauty salon at 57 E. Foothill Blvd., Arcadia, and will do hairstyles for the show as well as portray Ed Carmichael.

Others in the cast are Rita Borquist, John O'Donnell, Barbara Campbell, Gail Clement, John Curtis, Henry Bickness, Mary Nims, Julian Burke and Jerry May.

To say the least is not some people's way of doing it.

Thomas O'Malley, pastor of St. Rita's Church, Sierra Madre, as master of ceremonies, for the smooth and efficient way the program was carried out.

ALVERNO HEIGHTS. 61st high school to be built in the Los Angeles archdiocese, is on Michillinda Ave., a short distance above Sierra Madre Blvd. It is on a 13-acre estate, part of the former Barlow property, purchased from Mrs. James Barlow in 1942. The Barlow residence, now the Mother House, is a replica of a Florentine villa. The school, which opened in September with 136 students, will add a class each year until a four-year tenure is in operation, with some 500 students attending.

While the school offers the usual general business and homemaking courses, Alverno Heights will primarily be a college preparatory school.
